

Participation in international transplant congresses to enhance Aferetica's visibility and strengthen collaborations

In 2023, Aferetica participated in seven international congresses with a dual objective:

- increase the percentage of foreign revenue related to the modular transplant machine manufactured by the company;
- develop and create new connections among key players in the sector to achieve more impactful outcomes in research and social domains.

